MEDICINAL.

"I do not look as though I ever was sick."

When a woman is sick she falls off in looks. This is particularly the case when she suffers from diseases peculiar to her sex. Not only is her strength undermined, but she loses beauty of face and grace of form.

It is characteristic of the cures of womanly diseases effected by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that with restored health there is a restoration of good looks.

"Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I wish to thank you for the good your medicine has done me," writes Mrs. Mac Brown, of Canton, Fulton Co., Ill. "I was troubled with female weakness and doctored with several different remedies. They did not seem to help me; indeed I got worse all the time. I had severe pains in the back and the uterus. What heavy bearing down pains! I had a very bad case, but after taking five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and three of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' I am feeling as well as ever. It has been almost two years and I have had no return of the trouble. My friends and I see I don't look as though I ever was sick."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE OLD DOMINION RIFLES.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette: Reading under the heading of "Retrospection," published in a recent issue of the Gazette, stating some interesting facts in the history of the "Old Dominion Rifles," of Alexandria, Virginia, I am carried back to my boyhood days some forty years ago, and the faces and forms of my old playmates rise vividly before me, as I look backward and recall the exciting events of those stirring times.

So many of the old company have "crossed the river to rest on the other side" and there await the coming of the others who are sure to follow sooner or later until the calling of the final roll, when it will stand once more together and answer to their names before the "Great Commander." Well do I remember the first meeting, held in the rear office of "Corse Brothers, Bankers," on King street, and the three boys besides myself who signed our names to the first roll, dear old Benbury Danes, John Smith and dear old Benbury Danes. Janney are both at peace, while Edgar Warfield and myself are still here awaiting our final summons.

So upon the strength of that small beginning we took up the list thus started, and soon had a respectable number of Alexandria boys to present themselves to Major Montgomery D. Corse and request him to be their Captain as he had promised me he would do if the required number of men signed the roll. All this happened soon after the John Brown raid upon Harper's Ferry. Of the formation of the Old Dominion Rifles, the many drills in the old halls of your city, the parades through the streets to show new uniforms and the soldierly bearing of the boys in grey, the two weeks' visit to Warrenton and the mustering in at that town, and return to Alexandria, guard duty on the wharf feeding the old "Pawnee," picket duty on the Washington city road, and then the quick step out of town on the morning of the 24th of May, 1861. And these events are well remembered, and part of my life. I remember the call for volunteers to picket the city road at Four mile run and I expect all are still alive who, under the charge of Lieutenant Fowle with Corporal Geo. Wise and a squad of the Old Dominion boys did duty at that point and stopped the late travellers from Washington. I know that I stopped several myself, companies. They marched to the front and had to call up the corporal before allowing them to pass. And at Manassas the same squad was sent out on the first picket, when we had our first experience of sleeping on fence rails. I still have in my trunk the old constitution and by-and-by the company as originally formed, and in looking over some old papers, Confederate papers, etc., I found an order from General G. T. Beauregard signed by Thomas J. J. Beauregard, Lieutenant Forrester and myself to organize an independent company in Prince William county, and we did recruit one man at Brentsville, and only one, and he was put in the R. R. line, if I remember aright, as the regiment was suddenly ordered to Bull Run, and Colonel Corse ordered the boys to join them and were engaged in a lively little fight at Blackburn's Ford on the 18th of July. Before daybreak on that morning, "J. J." the colored servant of General Beauregard, came to my tent and said the general wanted me and I hurried to General Ewell, who was stationed at Union Mills. The dispatch read: "The enemy are advancing, hold your position," and the position was held with the assistance of "Kemper's Battery" and the 17th Infantry. "You went up to see the little bull run, and the little bull made you run; yaw," I rather think that some of the boys in Alexandria will remember that expression, and the old lady on King street, after the battle of Manassas. All honor to the memory of the "Old Dominion Rifles" and peace to the ashes of those who rest.

F. A. W. Atlin, British Columbia, Sept. 28.

TRIED TO ROB A TRAIN.—At the same spot, on the Southern Railway, between Columbia and Charleston, S. C., where eighteen months ago one robber took $10,000 from two express messengers, another attempt was made last night, also by one man. He boarded the train at Reevesville, getting between the smoker and express cars. When he gave the conductor's knock on the door the messenger was suspicious and refused to open.

Just then Conductor Carson, with two trainmen, came out on the platform. The robber poked a revolver in their faces and forced them to hold up their hands while he pulled the signal cord. As the train slowed up he stepped off in the darkness and has not been traced.

The trainmen say the robber was Bartow Warren. Warren was arrested for the former robbery at that point. He was tried at Orangeburg last winter and a mysterious woman worked in his interest, and although the evidence was strong, a mistrial resulted. Thomas Watson testified that Warren had asked him to help in that robbery. Warren got out on bail and immediately went to Brachville and killed Watson. There is a reward of $500 for his arrest, and the Governor a few days ago was notified that he had returned, but those who saw him feared to attempt his arrest.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure a Croup, Cold, Cough, Croup, Croup, Whooping Cough and Measles Cough without fail. Best for Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Grippe, Pneumonia, Consumption and Lung Affections. Gives quick, sure results. Price 25c Sold by Richard Gordon and all druggists.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Nasal Atomizer, including the spraying tube in 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the mucous membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

"I had long suffered from indigestion," writes G. A. LeDell, Cedar City, Me. "Like others I tried many preparations but never found anything that did me good until I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. One bottle cured me. A friend who had suffered similarly put on the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. He is gaining fast and will soon be able to work. Before he used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure indigestion had made him a total wreck. For sale by R. S. Loadbeater & Sons.
